How it works!

We offer freshly baked sourdough bread and focaccia available on a first-come, first-served basis at Bread & Bloom. Selections are baked fresh weekly and may change with the seasons and availability of ingredients.

Looking for a specific loaf, focaccia flavor, or a favorite like English muffins? You can reserve your order in advance through our Facebook page. Each week, we post the current Bread & Bloom menu featuring available breads, baked goods, and seasonal offerings. Simply comment with what you would like to reserve and the day you plan to pick up your order. Reservations help ensure your favorites are set aside before they sell out.

Please note: Reservations close each Wednesday at 9:00 AM.

YOU-PICK FLOWER BOUQUET

Beginning this June, the You-Pick Flower Farme at Bread & Bloom invites guests to slow down, wander the gardens, and gather seasonal blooms by hand. Upon arrival, choose a vase from our shelf to create your bouquet in — the vase will simply be added to the price of your flowers — or select one of our complimentary cups included with your You-Pick purchase. Grab a pair of snips or scissors, head out into the garden, and cut flowers until your bouquet feels just right. When you're finished, bring your blooms back inside the farmstand where you can wrap them up and complete your purchase. It's a simple, beautiful way to experience the joy of the seasons and take a little piece of The Farme home with you.

WHAT'S NEW?

Introducing...
Lebanon Cookbook Collective, where we gather around the table to celebrate food, hospitality, and community. Through seasonal cookbook-inspired dinners, members join chapter tables that fit their schedule, prepare a recipe to share, and enjoy meaningful connection over a shared meal. Whether serving as a Chapter Table Host or Table Member, each gathering is designed to inspire creativity in the kitchen,
cultivate fellowship, and create lasting memories around the table.
